FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Spartan Chassis Receives $56.4 Million Order for Production of MRAPs

CHARLOTTE, Michigan, May 8, 2008 – Spartan Chassis, Inc., a subsidiary of Spartan Motors, Inc. (Nasdaq: SPAR), has been awarded a subcontract order from defense contractor BAE Systems worth approximately $56.4 million to support the production of advanced tactical vehicles under the Mine Resistant Ambush Protected, or MRAP, program.

The Mich.-based custom chassis manufacturer will supply and integrate key chassis components for BAE Systems' RG33 Category I and II vehicles under the terms of the subcontract. The vehicles are scheduled for completion in the third and fourth quarters of 2008.

“Spartan Chassis is proud to once again be partnering with BAE Systems as a major supplier of the MRAP program. We are committed to leveraging our expertise in the design, material logistics and assembly of these vehicles in order to meet the aggressive demand of the U.S. military,” said Richard Schalter, president of Spartan Chassis.

After this order, Spartan Motors, Inc. reported its consolidated backlog as of Tuesday, May 6, 2008 totaled $345.5 million. Details of the backlog as of March 31, 2008 and May 6, 2008 are as follows:

These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that ultimately may not prove to be accurate. Actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Technical complications may arise that could prevent the prompt implementation of the plans outlined above. The company cautions that these forward-looking statements are further qualified by other factors including, but not limited to, those set forth in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filing and other filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (available at { HYPERLINK "http://www.sec.gov" }). Government contracts and subcontracts typically involve long payment and purchase cycles, competitive bidding, qualification requirements, delays or changes in funding, extensive specification development and changes, price negotiations and milestone requirements. An announced award of a governmental contract is not equivalent to a finalized executed contract and does not assure that orders will be issued and filled. Government agencies also often retain some portion of fees payable upon completion of a project and collection of contract fees may be delayed for long periods, which can negatively impact both prime contractors and subcontractors. The company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any statements in this release, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
